

I175

A mid-18th century George III English neo-gothic revival, decorative stone chimneypiece; dated 1766 and of the period. The shelf with cusped, cavetto moulding decorated with flower heads, the spandrels of the simply constructed arched lintel well carved with stylised leaves below a band of flower heads. The pilaster shaped jambs decorated centrally with armorial crests with stylised foliate decoration above and below.

Dimensions

Height 60½in (154cm) width 71in (180.5cm)

Internal height (to apex) 47in (119.5cm) width 46in (117cm)

Height of jambs 40in (99cm)

Shelf depth 5in (13cm)