

Croome Court

This richly decorated brass fire basket combines all the best design motifs of the 1770s. Capability Brown was the architect of Croome Court, Worcestershire in the mid 18th Century, while Robert Adam was responsible for the magnificent interior. This fire basket celebrates the tradition of the great English country house. Available in burnished brass/steel.

Dimensions

Height 30in (76.8cm) width 32in (81.2cm) depth 15in (46cm)

