

19th Century Antique

A 19th century pine and composite chimneypiece in the Neoclassical style, the shelf with running Scallop shell and Acanthus mouldings, above a frieze bearing Adam style floral motifs bearing acanthus, wheat and fruit. The central tablet bears a Classical scene of the four muses dancing to the tune of a flute. The corner blocks are decorated with further scenes showing allegories of Spring, above jambs topped with sunflowers and decorated with sprays of wheat.

Dimensions

Height 59½in (151.1cm) width 71in (180.3cm)

Internal height 46½in (118.1cm) width 50¼in (127.6cm)

Reference

G296