

18th Century Antique

A Regency period statuary marble column chimneypiece, the frieze and shelf enriched with reeds, centred with a plain central tablet, flanked by square corner blocks carved with bullseye roundels, above tapering columns capped by composite capitals, bearing both Ionic scrolls and Acanthus leaf carving. Provenance: Monmouth House, South Kensington.

Dimensions

Height 51in (129.5cm) width 60½in (153.7cm)

Internal height 41⅝in (135.5cm)

Footblock to footblock 53¾in (136.6cm)

Depth 10½in (26.6cm)

Reference

G379