

18th Century Antique

An Irish, 18th century chimneypiece carved in specimen marbles. The Statuary marble central tablet is carved with a handsome Roman tazza urn, terminating in fluted corbel corner blocks are carved in exquisite solid Convent Siena marble, the frieze and jamb panels are wonderfully figured Bardiglio, punctuated by statuary ingrounds, bed moulds and footblocks. The tablet is very finely carved in low relief, decorated around the rim with Pietra Dura inlay and rams heads, with bell flowers hanging from flanking ribbons.

Dimensions

Height 58 $\frac{1}{2}$ in (147.7cm) width 68 $\frac{7}{8}$ in (169.8cm)

Internal height 45 $\frac{1}{4}$ in (115cm) width 42 $\frac{3}{8}$ in (107.6cm)

Footblock to footblock 60 $\frac{15}{16}$ in (154.7cm)

Reference

G403