

19th Century Antique

A fine 19th century English bolection chimneypiece with an overmantel mirror frame carved in Grey Italian Breche. The discreet proportions of this style combined with the timeless charm of the marble confer elegance and lightness to the chimneypiece. The gentle ogee moulding that runs around the outer edge and ends in squared base blocks is typical of the English manufacture. The mirror frame, also defined by an ogee shape, is surmounted by a refined shelf.
