

18th Century Antique

A finely drawn, late eighteenth century, pine and gesso chimneypiece featuring a breakfront shelf and a frieze depicting a motif of crossed claret jugs and flaming torches. On the corner blocks are carved, Adam-style urns with ram heads and acanthus leaves whose fine carving contrasts the fluid, unbroken grain of the stripped pine on the jambs.

Dimensions

Height 61½in (156.6cm) width 72½in (185cm)

Internal height 49¾in (125.5cm) width 52in (132cm)

Footblock to footblock 65¾in (166cm)

Shelf depth 6½in (16.5cm)

Reference

G485