

Mawley in Calacatta Viola

This chimneypiece, carved here in Calacatta Viola, is characterised by the curved shoulders of the aperture which lead to a shallow, pointed arch. The simple jambs stand on foot blocks and the header, pierced by the arch, rises upwards and outward to form an 'eared' design, a feature typical of eighteenth-century chimneypieces.

Dimensions

Height 48⁹/₁₆in (123.4cm) width 57¹/₂in (145.2cm)

Internal height 41⁵/₈in (105.8cm) width 40in (101.6cm)

depth 2¹⁵/₁₆in (7.5cm)